

Program of the Online Conference

US Presidential Elections and Their Impacts on the World

November 15, 2024

Organized by the Global Studies Association of North America, and the Centre of Hemispheric Studies and United States at the University of Havana.

8:00 – 8:15 AM Chicago time; 9:00 – 9:15 AM Havana; 15:00 – 15:15 Prague
Introduction

Session: The US in Domestic and Foreign Tensions
8:15 – 9:45 AM Chicago time, 9:15 – 10:45 AM Havana; 15:15 – 16:45 Prague
Chair: Marek Hrubec

Block, Build and Broaden: Left Strategy for the US Elections
Jerry Harris, Global Studies Association of North America

The 2024 presidential elections in the US: its impact in the bilateral relations between Cuba and the US
C. Olga Rosa González Martín, University of Havana

Knowledge Capitalism, Hegemonic Transition and Elections in the United States
Ernesto Domínguez López, University of Havana

U.S. foreign policy towards China goes beyond the geopolitics
Wang Li, Changzhou University, PR China

Session: The US and the Global South
10:00 – 11:30 AM Chicago time; 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM Havana; 17:00 – 18:30 Prague
Chair: Jerry Harris

United States Elections, “The Foreign Policy Elephant in the Room”: And the Rise of the Global South
Harry Targ, Purdue University

From the periphery to the periphery: the prospects for change in U.S. Africa policy
Viktor Marsai, Ludovika University of Public Service, Hungary

Structural Constraints of Democracy in Liberal Democracy: USA and Europe
Martin Brabec, Institute of Philosophy of the Czech Academy of Sciences

U.S. Elections, Right-Wing Populism, and Global Migration Dynamics
Dalia González Delgado, University of Havana

Session: The US in Global Conflicts

12:30 – 2:00 PM Chicago time; 1:30 – 3:00 PM Havana; 19:30 – 21:00 Prague

Chair: Ernesto Domínguez López

The Beginning of The End?

Lauren Langman, Loyola University, Chicago

The Global Significance of US Elections. Plutocratic stimulation of transnational conflicts and alternatives

Marek Hrubec, Global Studies Association of North America

US Military-focused Foreign Policy: Self-Inflicted Failures in Need of a Reset

Peterson Nnaji, University of Lorraine, Metz, France

Global Development at a Crossroads: The 2024 U.S. Election and Its Impact on Technology, Trade, and Power

Tymoteusz Chajdas, University of California, Santa Barbara

Session: Background Beyond US Elections

2:15 – 3:45 PM Chicago time; 3:15 – 4:45 PM Havana; 21:15 – 22:45 Prague

Chair: Raúl Rodríguez Rodríguez, University of Havana

British and American Electoral Politics in the Age of Neoliberalism

Gerry Sussman, Portland State University

Partisan Journalism Against Electoral Politics

Lee Artz, Purdue University Northwest

Africa Should Not Count on The Goodness of Americans' Hearts Regardless of Who Wins the 2024 US Elections

John Bosco Ngendakurio, Griffith University, Australia

The Future of War and Peace: Theoretical Perspectives on the Arab-Israeli Conflict in Historical Palestine

Madalla Alibeli, United Arab Emirates University