

Global Studies Conference 2017 Schedule

Global Social Movements: Left and Right

Wednesday, June 14

9:00: Sign-In Begins

10:30 – 12:00: Wednesday Morning Panels

CKC Garden The Politics of Neo-Liberalism
Chair: Ingo Schmidt

Trumped?: Breaking Duverger's Law the Wrong-Way on the Right-Path to The Clash of Civilizations

Eric Honda, Independent Researcher

The Failure of Neo-Liberal Politics and the Rise of Alternatives
Ingo Schmidt, Athabasca University

Right and Left in 'Global' Inter-parliamentarian Assemblies: Convergence or Divergence?
Alexander Kuteynikov, St Petersburg State University (Russian Federation)

CKC 102 The Economic Architecture of Global Capitalism
Chair: Elizabeth Portella

Is Work Deglobalizing? Theory and Evidence
Aashish Mehta, University of California-Santa Barbara

Stock Market Linkages between China and East and Southeast Asian Countries: The Shadow of a Rising China
Chenghao (Matt) Hu, University of California, Davis

Building the Blockchain World: Technological Commonwealth or Techno Capitalism?
Sarah Manski, University of California - Santa Barbara

CKC 104 Food Sovereignty as Social Justice Movements
Chair: Wai Kit Choi

Decolonizing Food Systems: Indigenous Revitalization, Food Sovereignty & Agroecology as Counter-Hegemonic Movements for a Civilization in Crisis
Leonardo Figueroa Helland and Cassidy Thomas, Westminster College

Building Bridges to Alternative Food Systems: Social Forums, Food Movements and North-South, Producer-Consumer Divides
Elizabeth Smythe, Concordia University of Edmonton

The Prism of Expanding Peasants' Rights: A Critical Investigation of Different Frames Applied to La Vía Campesina's Human Rights Engagements
Pratik Raghu, University of California, Santa Barbara

Modeling the Global and National Causes of Food Insecurity and Its Role in Social Movements Across the World System
Edward L. Kick, North Carolina State University

12:00 – 1:00: Lunch Break

1:00 – 2:45: Wednesday Afternoon Panels A

CKC Garden Contemporary Left Social Movements
Chair: Alexander Kuteynikov

Ten Days in Mong Kok: Defending Street Barricades without Leaders during Hong Kong's "Umbrella Revolution"
Wai Kit Choi, California State University, Los Angeles

"Black Lives Matter": From the Local to the Global

Kenneth Sean Chaplin, John Carroll University, Ohio

Gendering Global Climate Change: Calling for an Intersectional Environmental Justice Movement in the Present Moment of Neoliberalism

Leigh Gaskin, Washington State University

CKC 102

Social Movements of Brazil and the Amazon

Chair: Craig Johnson

Social Mobilization, Citizenship and Right to the City in the Periphery of São Paulo

Leonardo Fontes, State University of Rio de Janeiro (UERJ) and University of Texas at Austin

CKC 104

Polanyi's Double-Movement, Fascism, and the Capitalist World Economy: The Contributions of Walter Goldfrank and the Challenges of the 21st Century

Chair: Jonathan Simon, University of California, Berkeley

Immigration, Reimagining the White Republic, and Waves of Fascism

Kaylin Bourdon, University of San Diego

The Global Right in the World Revolutions of 1917 and 20xx: Reflections on the Analysis of W. I. Goldfrank on Fascism and the Global Political Economy

Chris Chase-Dunn, University of California-Riverside

Polanyi's Double-Movement, the Origins of Fascism, and Possible Contemporary Resurgences: Rethinking Walter Goldfrank's Insights in the 21st Century

Tom Reifer, University of California-Riverside

3:00 – 4:45:

Wednesday Afternoon Panels B

CKC Garden

Contemporary Right Social Movements

Chair: Julián Castro-Rea

Donald Trump, the Crisis of Neo-Liberalism, and the Threat of Neo-Fascism

Christopher Gunderson, Howard University

From Social Movement to a Political Party: India's Common Man Movement in the Age of Neoliberal Globalization

Nissim Mannathukkaren, Dalhousie University, Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada

CKC 102

Technology: Liberation or Domination?

Chair: Jenny Nguyen

Urban Space, Cyberspace, and Left / Right Social Movements in an Authoritarian City-State

Jason Luger, University of California, Berkeley and University of San Francisco

Global Internet Value and Work

John Redden, Co-owner and Manager of South Kona Farms, Hawai'i

Automation, Artificial Intelligence, and the God/Useless Divide

Alec Stubbs, Loyola University, Chicago

Misogynist Mobilizations Online: The Dissemination of Male Supremacist Ideology

Alex DiBranco, Yale University

CKC 104

The Face of Imperialism

Chair: Amentahru Wahlrab

Theorizing the Post-Industrial Society: Imperialism and Neoliberal Globalization

Elizabeth Portella, University of Oregon

Global Capitalism and South-South Migration: The Challenges of Resisting Exclusionary Politics in Chile

Javiera Madrid Salazar, University of California, Santa Barbara

Supporting Nonviolent Resistance: What's left of nonviolence after it's been adopted as the soft power of US foreign policy?

Amentahru Wahlrab, University of Texas at Tyler

Giving Nicknames to Deadly Bombs: Afghanistan, the Imagined Geography

Mujib Abid, University of Sydney

- 5:00 – 7:00: Opening Night Keynote
Chair: Lauren Langman
- CKC Garden Donald Trump, Globalization, and Authoritarian Populism
Doug Kellner, University of California, Los Angeles
- The Left on Neoliberalism
Barbara Epstein, University of California, Santa Cruz
- White, Right Resentment
Lauren Langman, Loyola University, Chicago

Thursday, June 15

- 9:00 – 10:30: Thursday Morning Keynote: The Global Turn
Chair: Eve Darian-Smith
- CKC Garden Eve Darian-Smith and Philip McCarty
University of California, Irvine
- 10:45 – 12:15: Thursday Morning Panels
- CKC Garden Right-Wing Power Structures in Mexico
Chair: Marcelo del Castillo-Mussot
- Denationalization of Mexico's Energy Reserves as Political Treason
Marcelo del Castillo-Mussot, Universidad Nacional Autonoma de México (UNAM), México
- Right-Wing Think Tank Networks in Latin America: The Mexican Connection
Julian Castro-Rea, University of Alberta
- The Limits of Fellowship: Lions and Rotary International in Mexico, 1930-1960
David Tamayo, University of California, Berkeley
- CKC 102 Is Left Populism the Road to Change?
Chair: Ingo Schmidt
- Populism Cannot Solve Social Problems and Generate Emancipation
Carl Ratner, Institute for Cultural Research & Education
- Breaking from Stagnation: Confronting Dialectics in Collective Discourse for Transformative Change
George Ygarza, University of California, Santa Barbara
- The Free Speech Movement and its Legacy
John Williams, University of Texas at Dallas
- Contesting the Militarization of Public Transportation in Portland, Oregon
Desiree Hellegers, Washington State University, Vancouver
- CKC 104 Designing and Doing Global Research
Eve Darian-Smith and Philip McCarty, University of California, Irvine
- 12:15 – 1:30: Lunch Break
- 1:30 – 3:15: Thursday Afternoon Panels
- CKC Garden Labor Faces Globalization
Chair: Peterson Nnajiolor
- The New Sharing Economy: Demise of Social and Labor Movements?
Peterson Nnajiolor, IDEA Research Center, University of Lorraine, Metz, France

Save Mary Jane Veloso: Building Solidarity and Global Migrant Activism in the Filipino Labor Diaspora

Valerie Francisco-Menchavez, San Francisco State University

Transnational Campaigns and Bangladeshi Garment Workers

Jonathan Christiansen, SUNY Binghamton

CKC 102

Women and the Construction of Human Rights

Chair: Rubén Díez García

Winners or Losers of Global Large-Scale Land Acquisitions: Where do Rural Women in Cameroon Fit In?

Lotsmart Fonjong, University of Buea

The Hybridity of Human Rights: Rethinking the Colonial Narrative of Spanish Empire through a Global Lens

Jesilyn Faust, University of California, Santa Barbara

Marital Satisfaction in Times of Change

Madalla Awad Alibeli, United Arab Emirates University

CKC 104

Building the Foundation of the Right-Wing Social Base

Chair: Kenneth Chaplin

The Historical Contingencies of Racialization: From Early Capitalism to Global Capitalism

Jeb Sprague-Silgado and Salvador Rangel, University of California, Santa Barbara

Global Capital, Global Church: Neoliberalism and Post-Conciliar Catholicism

Craig Johnson, University of California, Berkeley

Is History Repeating Itself? The Immigration Act of 1917 and President Trump's Executive Orders on Immigration

George Vargis & Salli Vargis, Perimeter College, Georgia State University

3:30 – 5:00:

Thursday Night Keynote

Chair: Jerry Harris

CKC Garden

Forging Local and Global Connections in the Fight for Environmental and Climate Justice, and Migrant and Labor Struggles

Grace Chang, University of California, Santa Barbara

Technology, Unemployment and the New Nationalism

Jerry Harris, National Secretary, Global Studies Association of North America

6:00 – 8:30

BANQUET: Great China Restaurant

Friday, June 16

9:00 – 10:30: Friday Morning Panels

CKC Garden Indigenous Social Movements

Chair: Yesenia Trevino

Indigenous and Non-Indigenous Transnational Social Movement Cooperation: Shared Interests, Shared Values?

Jay Smith, Athabasca University, Alberta

Water is Life at Standing Rock: A Case of First World Resistance to Global Capitalism

Edwin Lopez, California State University, Fullerton

Global Indigenous Movements against Extractive Capitalism

Pavithra Narayanan, Washington State University Vancouver

CKC 102 Gender in the Global South

Chair: Valerie Francisco-Menchavez

Gender Capital and Social Movements: The Kudumbashree Experience in South India

Shoba Arun, Manchester Metropolitan University, UK and Thankom Arun, University of Essex

Safe in the City: Gay Tourism in India and the Politics of Worlding

Nishant Shahani, Washington State University

CKC 104 Art and Music Creating Global Communities

Chair: John Redden

Globalism in Rhythm: Music at the Intersection of Populism and Multiculturalism

Gregory Freeland, California Lutheran University

Train Graffiti as Transnational Communication

Gregory Morales, San Diego Workers' Party

10:45 – 12:15: Friday Morning Keynote

Chair: Carl Boggs

CKC Garden Global Social Movements since 1968

George Katsiaficas, Chonnam National University, Gwangju, South Korea

The Chicano/ Chicana Movement: Past and Present

Carlos Munoz, Jr., University of California, Berkeley

12:15 – 1:30: Lunch Break

1:30 – 3:15: Friday Afternoon Panels

CKC Garden The Politics of Media and Legitimacy

Chair: Chris Chase-Dunn

Reporting Post-Truth Politics: News-making in an Era of Alternative Facts

Tymoteusz Chajdas, University of California, Santa Barbara

Media Coverage of the Environmental Crisis in China

Haoyue (Cecilia) Li, University at Albany, SUNY

What is Political Life (in America)? Electoral and Media Politics in the New Cold War

Gerald Sussman, Portland State University

CKC 102 Right-Wing Power Structure in Turkey

Chair: Jay Smith

When Hegemony Collapses: The Impact of The West's Crisis on the Authoritarian Shift of Turkey

Onur Kapdan, University of California, Santa Barbara

Securitization Policies in Discourse and Action: The Case of Turkey and the AKP
Sarp Kurgan, University of California, Santa Barbara

Arendtian Understanding of Truth, Lying and Action: Defactualization and Dehistoricization of the Armenian Genocide

Mesadet Sozmen, University of California, Santa Barbara

CKC 104

Identity in the Age of Globalization

Chair: Leila Zonouzi

Democracy and Dignity. A Contemporary Master Frame? Evidence from Social Movements in Space and Time

Rubén Díez García, Carlos III University of Madrid (UC3M), Spain

The Iranian Diaspora and Transnational Identities

Leila Zonouzi, University of California, Santa Barbara

Foreigners and Fascism: Collective Identities and Global Social Movements

Mariela Villalba Madrid, University of California, Riverside

3:30 – 5:00:

Closing Keynote

Chair: Carl Boggs

CKC Garden

Globalized Corporate Power, Warfare State, and the Matrix of Domination

Carl Boggs, National University, Los Angeles

Alt-Right Transgressions in the Age of Trump

Tom Pollard, National University