Weaponized Whiteness

The Constructions and Deconstructions of White Identity Politics

Fran Shor, Wayne State University

Weaponized Whiteness by Fran Shor interrogates the meanings and implications of white supremacy and, more specifically, white identity politics from historical and sociological perspectives. By analyzing the constructions and deconstructions of white identity politics throughout U. S. history and up through the present, these collected essays provide insight into the deep roots and resonances of white identity politics and the challenges that have emerged, in particular, since the 1960s.

READERSHIP: All interested in the history of and challenges to white identity politics in the United States.
